

How big does the perturbation have to be to flip the output?

